Blairmore's Municipal and School Tax Rate For 1919 is 72 Mills

The regular meeting of the Blairmore town council was held on Thursday night last, there being present the Secretary-Treasurer, the Mayor and Councillors Montalbetti, McDonald, Rosse and McLeod.

The minutes of previous meeting were approved as read and the following accounts were passed for payment: F. Wright, June salary $100.00; L. H. Putnam, June retainer, $20.00; Delbert Eunis, draying, $4.00; Blairmore Hardware Co., meter rentals for June, $28.00; J. M. Carter, salary for June, $100.00; James Patterson, labor, $10.00; Dr. J. Olivier, fee as medical health officer for months of April, May and June, $62.50; Blairmore Enterprise, printing and stationery, $19.00; D. Walker, labor, $10.00; A. A. List of accounts in connection with recent fire were presented in revised form by Councillor McDonald, and on motion was accepted, subject to addition of $23.00 in the name of A. Morency.

The resignation of Councillor Morency was read and filed. The secretary presented a list of delinquent accounts in connection with water and light, which on motion of Councillors McLeod and McDonald, were ordered written off the books.

On motion by Councillors McLeod and Montalbetti, the sum of $25.00 was granted towards the Great War Veterans' Dominion Day Sports funds.

A by-law was passed setting a municipal tax rate for the year at sixty mills.

Councillor McDonald gave notice that at the next regular meeting of the council he would introduce a by-law appointing a returning officer for by-election.

Councillor McLeod, who arrived on the scene rather late, protested against accepting list of costs in connection with recent fire, claiming that individual accounts from the fire fighters and all others should be presented to the council. He asked for re-consideration of the matter, which request was not granted as the matter was declared to have been definitely dealt with.

At a meeting of the school trustees held on Friday evening, a mill rate was set at twelve mills, being same as last year. In the estimates submitted provision was made for an amount to cover painting and general renovation of school building and grounds, and the secretary was instructed to advertise for tenders for the painting of the exterior of the school building.

About a dozen applications for positions on the teaching staff for the next year were received, but were not put on the table for consideration at a later date.

Blairmore Celebrates July First

July First was fittingly celebrated in Blairmore. At an early hour in the morning the town was enfeited with hunting and an unusual stir of citizens ready to celebrate the termination of the war together with the birth of the Dominion.

A splendid programme had been arranged and was carried out to perfection under the auspices of the local members of the Great War Veterans' Association.

A procession was formed in front of the G. W. V. A. headquarters, made up of veterans and civilians of all walks of life, except the stool-pigeons. About two hundred children of local schools, accompanied by their teachers, also took part in the great patriotic parade, each carrying the Canadian colors.

The procession was headed by a splendid representation of Kaiser Bill. That role was filled by Private Valentine Ronaldi, a recently returned Italian veteran of the Canadian forces, who was held at the neck by the nose of a rope suspended from the strong arm of Lieut. Abel, of the American Aviation Corps. Next followed the Coleman band in full uniform, then a squad of about 150 veterans in charge of Captain W. J. Fisher, and citizens to the number of about 1,000. Quite a number of decorated autos and floats followed, representing all communities from Crow's Nest to Cowley. Reaching Blairmore the crowd assembled near the C.P.R. platform, where several patriotic addresses were given, to which Capt. Fisher made fitting response, and the gathering dispersed for lunch.

In the afternoon a programme of field sports were carried out, and prizes were awarded as follows:

The chief event of the afternoon was the baseball game between Cowley and Blairmore, which resulted in a victory for Cowley of 2 to 0.

The game was the fastest, cleanest and closest ever played in the Past. Pitchers Olsen and Fendergrast appeared in good form, as did also Catchers Benson and McLaren. Cowley's line-up was Smith, Welsh, Brady, McLaren, Welsh, LaBrie, Robinson, Smythe and Fendergrast. Blairmore's line-up was Olsen, Benson, Patterson, Morency, Bouthillier, Bobier, Elwin, Turner and Turner—all Blairmore men. Cowley could boast of at least two importations.

The celebration was brought to a fitting close by a grand ball in the opera house at night, which was attended by over two hundred couples. Korr's Orchestra rendered satisfactory and pleasing music.

We understand that as a result of the undertaking the Great War Veterans' local committee have netted over $600, which will be placed to the building fund.

Crown Prince Has Escaped Parole

Paris.—Frederick William Hohenzollern, the former German Crown Prince, has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany.

Holland have come from Germany within the past few days that the military caste there would not be averse to bringing about a military situation within the former empire that would embarrass the allies in putting the peace treaty into effect and it seems not impossible that the move made by the ex-Crown Prince is credited with some such plan.

The former Crown Prince made his way into Holland shortly after the signing of the armistice last November, and was interned there by the Dutch government, taking up his residence on the island of Wieringen, in the Zuider Zee.

Pending details, official discussion of the event and its bearing on German affairs, and the question whether it involves violation of neutrality by Holland, is withheld.

Recent Berlin dispatches printed in the Paris newspapers are recalled in which unnamed but allegedly well-placed persons commented on the sinking of the German fleet in Scapa Flow and the burning of French battle flags, said they were not surprised, and declared that other equally startling events might be anticipated. Since the Scapa Flow incident, the Paris press has insistently alluded to the possibility of the former German emperor's escape from Holland, coupled with the question as to whether measures had been taken to prevent such a move.

In military quarters the belief was expressed that the crown prince and Prince Max of Baden are on their way to east Prussia, where the military reactionary element is strong. The opinion is that there may be among the old junker officer class those who, whatever opinion is held against the former crown prince personally, might try to use him as "the man on horseback."

The presence in Germany at this moment of Frederick William, when the fate of the peace treaty still hangs in the balance, has caused disquiet in Paris, and there is considerable speculation regarding the next development in the situation.

Germany Facing Railroad Strike

Berlin.—Germany is faced by a nation-wide railroad strike for higher wages. At Gorlitz station, Berlin, service has been stopped in both directions. The Breslau service has been badly interrupted.

The government is negotiating in an endeavor to halt the strikes, which are largely the outcome of communist propaganda.

Prohibition Bill Dead

Ottawa.—In the prohibition vote all the Saskatchewan members voted for prohibition. The senate won't likely change and the bill seems dead. The fall session will be in October.

Invested in Peace River

London.—The Marquis of Queensberry has returned to London, having acquired large oil and other interests in the Peace River district.

Proposed Movement For Labor Reforms

Winnipeg.—A special dispatch to the Free Press from its Ottawa correspondent says:

"Important and far-reaching recommendations, designed to bring about the better relations between labor and capital, and to improve conditions, are incorporated in the report of the industrial relations commission, under Mr. Justice Mathers, who is expected to submit the findings to the government."

"The commission will recommend that a conference be held immediately with the provincial authorities, with a view toward bringing about the following reforms:

1. An eight-hour day throughout Canada.
 2. A minimum wage for both male and female workers.
 3. Collective bargaining, as prescribed by the railway unions.
- The commission will further recommend that the Dominion government take steps, as soon as possible, for the formation of industrial councils on the Whitley plan, as adopted in England. It will urge that provisions be made for old-age pensions, that a system of unemployment insurance be inaugurated, together with insurance against sickness and disability.

Urged Exclusion Of Japanese

California Senator Characterized Them as "Hun of the East"

Washington, District of Columbia.—Speaking before the house immigration committee, James D. Phelan, democrat, senator from California, declared that, for its own preservation, the time has come when the United States government must put up the bars against all Japanese immigration in the future.

The California senator urged that Japan could not reasonably resent such action by the United States as had been taken by the Tokio government toward China.

Characterizing the Japanese as the "hun of the east," the senator from California reiterated his charge that a Japanese syndicate had attempted to purchase 800,000 acres of the most fertile land in the San Joaquin Valley in California, and that the transaction was only halted when he complained to the state department.

Havoc Of Tornado

Fergus Falls, Minn.—State military authorities in charge of the tornado-stricken district of this city had compiled a list of 48 persons who are known to have died as a result of the cyclone. The officers in charge estimated that the total death toll is not less than 60.

Mayor Frankberg estimated that the city's financial loss from Sunday's tornado is not less than $3,000,000. "A careful survey of the city shows that the early estimate of a million and a half loss is too conservative, and that the actual loss is at least $3,000,000," said the mayor.

"Forty per cent. of the resident district is in ruins, about the same portion of the business district has been demolished."

War Board Rules for U.S. Wheat

New York.—Julius Barnes, United States wheat director, made public a proclamation by President Wilson granting him full authority to regulate by license the exportation and importation of wheat and wheat flour for the purpose of stabilizing prices. Mr. Barnes said that the regulations he would put into effect were similar to those which have been enforced by the war trade board, which heretofore has exercised the functions delegated to him.

Cattle Embargo is Still On

London.—Replying to a deputation urging the removal of the embargo on the importation of Canadian stocker cattle, the president of the board of agriculture admitted no ground for the embargo on account of disease, for the Canadian herds were the healthiest in the world, but if the board obtained the power of admission they must refrain from using it owing to the present labor difficulties.

Aliens Apply for Passports

Ottawa.—Many applications for passports are being received from persons of alien origin in the Dominion by the passport branch of the department of external affairs. The applicants include not only enemy aliens to whom passports are refused, but men from countries friendly to, or which have been fighting with the allies during the war. In the case of such latter classes, passports are granted only if they have been naturalized in the Dominion. Those who are not naturalized are referred to their particular consular agent. A great many applications are being received from Italians, Armenians, Macedonians, Poles, Ukrainians, and natives of various parts of Austria.

Shipload of Aliens Going From U.S.

Charleston, S.C.—The transport harbor here with about 2,000 Germans aboard, prepared to sail for Rotterdam soon, the exact time of departure depending on the arrival of 267 more from Fort Douglas, Arizona. The passengers include enemy aliens from Austria, Germany, and the United States and interned for the period of the war.

End Of Winnipeg Strike

Bunch of Alien Enemies Are Recommended for Deportation
Winnipeg.—Twenty-eight alien enemies, created during Saturday's riot, have been recommended by the police for deportation. Crown Prosecutor Graham announced in the police court.

The men will be kept at the central police station and the provincial jail until their cases are investigated by a board of immigration officials.

Comrade Martin, who took a prominent part in the pro-Strike returned soldiers' mass meetings, when it was decided, to hold a "silent parade," which precipitated the riot, was arrested by the city police.

Martin addressed the mass meeting in Market Square on Friday night and the meeting held in Victoria Park Saturday morning.

Chief Newton stated that 200 policemen had quit and that about 180 of these would be taken back. The cases of some forty, he said, were under advisement.

The old members taken back have all signed the same agreement as the freshmen, which forbids affiliation with the Trades and Labor Council and the taking part in sympathetic strikes. Each man before being again accepted for the force appeared personally before Chief Newton and took the oath of office and signed the agreement.

In the course of a statement given out dealing with the activities of the provincial government during the general strike, Premier T. C. Norris said:

"The government now proposes to appoint a royal commission vested with full powers to ascertain the causes and effects of the strike and matters incidental thereto, in the hope that the problems of labor and the difficulties of employers may be better understood, and that a sound and fair basis may be found on which matters in dispute from time to time may hereafter be adjusted."

"The step will, of course, not affect in any way any court proceedings."

"The commissioner we have in view is Mr. H. A. Robson, and we are at present in communication with him."

With the termination of the sympathetic strike, the general strike committee which ordered it automatically ceased to exist. The position of the labor temple is now the same as it was prior to the general strike, the chief authoritative body being the trades and labor council. The possibility of a considerable number of men being left without jobs as a result of the unconditional surrender of the general strike committee has created great consternation at labor headquarters. It was unofficially reported that a movement was on foot to get a committee appointed to take up the question of reinstatement with the employers and to watch the interests generally of those who, though in many cases dragged into the strike against their will, may find themselves out of work as a result. The failure of many to get their jobs back is given as the reason for the movement. While no approximate figure could be put on the number whose applications were turned down, it was declared in labor circles to be very large.

For the 225 vacancies at the Manitoba government telephone 350 applied, according to Commissioner George A. Watson. None of those who had been taken on the staff of a manly would be removed in favor of those who had come back after the general strike had been declared off, the commissioner added. The same state of affairs applies to the case of the electrician's union, 100 vacancies to be filled out of 150 left vacant.

Permanent Cost Of Living Board Soon

Committee Report in Favor of the Appointment of Permanent Commission

Ottawa.—It is probable that the majority of the cost of living committee of the commons, which has been hearing evidence for some weeks, will report to the house in favor of the appointment of a permanent commission to be called in all probability by the Industrial Relations Commission.

The proposal was discussed at a special meeting of the committee. G. B. Nicholson, chairman of the committee, is in favor of the suggestion. A plan is to have three members of the committee, the chairman to receive a salary of $8,000, and the two other commissioners $7,000 each.

Germany's Way

Paris.—The Danish government has protested to the peace conference against the action of the German government, which is alleged to be sending German soldiers to the front in the Schleswig. It is alleged that the Germans were selling property belonging to the state.

Rejoicing Over Advent Of Peace

Allied Soldiers Take Part In Celebrations

Copenhagen.—There was a remarkable spontaneous outbreak of rejoicing when the news that Germany had decided to sign the treaty reached Copenhagen. Many contradictory reports of the proceedings at Windsor kept the people in suspense until just before seven o'clock Monday night, when the guns of the British grand fleet and French warships in the roads shooting in salvos announced the news.

The crews of the vessels, both in the harbor and in the roads, started whistles and sirens going, and climbed the masts cheering lustily. Previously the allied warships had been cleaned for possible action.

Many of the search got shore leave and joined the throngs in the already crowded streets, singing and cheering. Long processions were formed, in which numerous flags of the allied nations were borne aloft. The singing of the Marseillaise and other patriotic songs was to be heard everywhere. French and British sailors marched to the national Danish monument commemorating the war of 1864, and decorated it with flowers. The populace wildly cheered the allies, who had won Schleswig again for Denmark.

When darkness fell the warships were lighted up with incandescent bulbs and threw their searchlights over the city. The Copenhagen newspapers printed enthusiastic articles on Germany's decision to sign the peace.

Madrid.—"It was with ineffable joy that I received the news of the certain advent of peace," said King Alfonso in his speech from the throne at the reopening of the cortes. The king began his address by affirming an unalterable concord between Spain and the Vatican, and added:

"Spain's friendship for all nations is unchanged, except for the fact that the minister of Petrograd was withdrawn in consequence of events there."

Australia's Method

Will Not Allow Any Arrogant Force To Dump Functions of Government on Commonwealth

Melbourne.—Outlining the political and industrial situation of the commonwealth, Acting Prime Minister Watt, in a public address, declared that the government will stand for the settlement of labor disputes by law and order under all circumstances rather than by the use of brute force.

"The people have expressed their will by the laws of the country," he added, "and they will not allow any force, however arrogant or powerful, to usurp the functions of the government or to challenge the forces of the government."

After reviewing the break which occurred in the labor party over the first consideration issue, and the resultant withdrawal of the National Labor party, led by William Hughes, the present premier, and the more numerous Liberal party, Mr. Watt said:

"The only safety for the country rests in the reaffirmation of this union, so that the two may be a national party in fact as well as in name."

Facing Expulsion

Expelling Unions for Calling Strike Without Sanction

Denver.—For participation in the general strike in Canada, several hundred members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers face expulsion from the organization, according to a discussion on the floor of the brotherhood's convention here. Arthur J. Lovell, vice-president of the brotherhood, who returned from Canada, where he was delegated to investigate conditions, said conditions in Canada at the time of his leaving were "terrible, very serious."

Army of 400,000 for U.S.

Washington.—Without a vote, the senate adopted committee amendments to the army appropriation bill providing for an army of 400,000 men for the year beginning July 1. The bill as passed by the house provides for an army of 300,000 and Secretary Baker had recommended that the total be placed at 500,000 officers and men.

Hold on to Kaiser, Dutch Warned

Copenhagen.—The German officers' association has telegraphed the Dutch government, warning it not to deliver the former Kaiser to the allies for trial. It was reported in Amsterdam that the Dutch government was holding on to the Kaiser with our bodies, but we rely upon the generosity of the Dutch people," the message concluded.

Profiteers And Reds Enemies Of Canada

Strike Leaders Remanded

Trials Over Sedition and Riots Will Commence Soon

Winnipeg.—William Ives, R. B. Russell, Alderman A. A. Keays, George Armstrong, R. E. Bray and Alderman John Queen, strike leaders arrested a week ago, will be tried in the city police court July 3 on charges of seditious libel and seditious conspiracy. They were remanded by Magistrate Macdonald in special strike court on the request of A. J. Andrews, prosecutor for the Dominion government.

W. A. Pritchard, Sam Blumenberg, Matthew Charlton, Oscar Schopel and Moses Altmann were given a similar remand.

T. J. Murray, together with R. J. McMurray, will defend the prisoners now in Winnipeg. The men held at Stony Mountain penitentiary will be defended by M. Hyman. A conference of these three attorneys for the defence was held, when it was decided not to ask for a remand.

Turks Assault Greeks

Strong Forces Driving Them Back In Asia Minor

Paris.—The situation in Asia Minor is serious, according to official dispatches received by Reuters' limited bureau here. These dispatches stated that the Turkish forces outnumber the Greeks four to one and threaten to drive them entirely out of Asia Minor. The Greek forces are reported to be retreating before the Turks, who are supplied with good artillery and plenty of ammunition.

Reparation For Fleet

May Yet Be Added to Germany's War Bill

Paris.—The council has decided to send two notes to the president of the German peace delegation at Versailles, one regarding the actions of the Germans in Poland, in connection with a significant telegram interpreted by the Poles, and the other relating to the sinking of the German fleet in Scapa Flow. The allies announce that they will demand reparation for the sinking of the fleet.

Money For Belgium

Reparations Committee Sanction Priority Payment of $500,000,000

Paris.—The reparations committee of the peace conference has agreed to priority payment to Belgium of $500,000,000 from the German indemnities, it was officially announced.

Mobs Attack Hamburg Factories

Copenhagen.—Serious rioting occurred at Hamburg, when mobs attacked food preserving factories, it being alleged that the bodies of dogs and cats had been found in them. The managers were dragged to the streets and roughly handled. The war provisions department was also attacked and its offices were wrecked. The mob tried to disarm troops marching through the streets, and the latter opened fire, a number of persons being killed and wounded.

Invited to Moose Jaw

Moose Jaw.—The council passed a resolution which will be presented by local delegates at the union of Saskatchewan municipalities' convention, inviting the convention to meet here next year.

German Government Exhorts Its People

London.—President Ebert, Herr Bauer, and all the executives have issued a proclamation to the German people, according to a wireless message from Berlin, announcing the conclusion of the peace and urging as the first pressing need the bending of all efforts to its fulfillment.

"As far as it is possible to carry it out," says the proclamation, "the treaty must be carried out."

It declares faithful loyalty to those threatened with separation from the empire, and promises to interfere in their behalf, "as we would interfere for ourselves."

It exhorts the people to realize the need of work and faithfulness to duty for the redemption of the country.

Berlin.—The streets of Berlin have been the scene of rioting and plundering. Incited by speeches from agitators in Alexanderplatz, mobs attacked and robbed pedestrians and maltreated soldiers. Troops sent to Alexanderplatz were fired upon by crowds in the streets and from the roofs of buildings. They finally succeeded in clearing the streets. Elsewhere in the city, bands of marauders robbed shops and attacked citizens, riding their pockets.

Winnipeg.—In reply to a request from a number of members of the Great War Veterans' Association and of the general public that the executive committee of the association make a public statement as to its policy with regard to conditions existing on settlement of the strike, John O. Newton, vice-president of the Winnipeg branch of the association, points out that owing to the forthcoming Dominion convention to be held in Vancouver, it is impossible for the executive to meet in the near future.

Mr. Newton, in a statement, then mentions the stand taken by the Dominion executive, and as to which legislation has been requested, namely:

- 1.—A minimum wage.
- 2.—Insurance with regard to unemployment, illness and old age.
- 3.—Suitable housing for all.
- 4.—Reduction in the cost of living by the elimination or curtailment of unessential middlemen, by regulations governing cold storage plants and otherwise.
- 5.—Stringent restrictions with regard to immigration and naturalization.
- 6.—Suitable and equal opportunities for the children of all, rich and poor alike, with regard to all forms of education, with Dominion government financial assistance and scholarships.
- 7.—Support of the general principles of more perfect co-operation in industrial management as laid down by the Whitley Commission in the United Kingdom.
- 8.—Real democratic government by means of proportional representation.

"From the above and from other statements recently published," says Mr. Newton, "the Dominion executive obviously believes, and ample confirmation has been obtained from the present strike, that there are two main enemies to peace and prosperity in Canada today, one is just as bad as the other, both really of the same type, viz., the profiteers amongst capitalists and the reds amongst labor."

"It is clearly the duty of the Great War Veterans' Association to see that the activities of both are brought to a halt, the profiteers and the reds, who are the enemies of the peace and prosperity of the country."

"The strike has not been an unmitigated evil by any manner of means. It has awakened the people from their apathetic slumbers, it has shown the government that the problems of the nation are not alien, the profiteers and the high cost of living must be satisfactorily handled immediately, and that if the present government is unable to fill the bill another government must take its place; in other words, the present strike has focused public attention on what the Great War Veterans' Association has been urging on the government for months."

Poincare Going to Brussels

Brussels.—The date of the visit of President Poincare to France to Belgium has been fixed for July 21, which is Belgium's national day. He will be accompanied by Marshals Joffre, Foch and Petain, all of whom will attend a review of the Belgian army on July 22.

Fourteen Years After

Prince Rupert.—It is reported here that Simon Goss, noted Indian renegade, wanted on a murder charge, and who has been in hiding near the heavy waters of the Skeena River for the last 14 years, has given himself up to Constable M. Kelly, of the provincial police at Hazelton.

Elsewhere in the city, bands of marauders robbed shops and attacked citizens, riding their pockets.

The neighborhood of the Stettin railway station, the Hochstrasse and the Barstrasse was notably disorderly. Street cars were held up, while riotous and robbing passengers' pockets and mauling women's legs. Here, also, soldiers were beaten and shots were fired from roofs and windows, and the fire.

Denmark Wants No German Citizens

Declines To Accept Responsibility For Province Of Schleswig

Denmark, wise in its day and generation, declines to accept responsibility for that part of the province of Schleswig that is inhabited by a hostile German population. Its government has no desire to create another Alsace-Lorraine grievance between the small people of Denmark and their immensely more powerful neighbors, or to face the endless controversies over language, institutions and officials that it would entail. Nor is it without significance in its bearing on the regard in which the League of Nations is held that the Danish statesmen are not inclined to see in the peace to be signed at Versailles any more enduring peace than resulted from the treaty of Vienna. Former Premier Niels Neergaard, at a recent secret meeting of the Danish Rigsdag, offered strong opposition to the proposed plebiscite in the third, or southern zone of Schleswig, and indicated that conflicts of interest among the great powers would continue and that events might occur which would seriously alter the existing system.

In an authorized interview, Ove Rode, the Danish minister of the interior, while expressing keen gratitude that the coming peace will unite the Danish part of Schleswig with Denmark, expressed the identical opinion voiced by the former premier. He stated that the Danish government wished the plebiscite limited to north and central Schleswig. This part of the former duchy, he explained, is not inhabited by Danes, but by Germans, who even before the war showed themselves of hostile mind towards Denmark. Mr. Rode feared that partly owing to the unsettled conditions in Germany and partly to political plans to keep the former duchy of Schleswig undivided, the German inhabitants might be induced to vote for a union with Denmark, not because they intended to become Danes, but to preserve the whole duchy with a predominant German population.

There is reason for this fear is evident, since South Schleswig has only 150,000 Danes against 340,000 Germans. Denmark wants no future cause of offence on this score.

He Recognized Him

A returned chaplain says that being told that among the German prisoners of his battalion was a certain captain whom he had known at a club in a Western Canadian city, he went over to the barbed wire compound to see if he could do anything for the man, who was tumbling about being kept with the common soldiers. Spotting his former acquaintance, he approached him and offered his kindly services. The Prussian turned, recognized him and spit at him. "And those are the kind of people we were admitting to Canadian citizenship," commented the chaplain.

Unnamed Heiresses

Wealthy Americans Who Live In England Have To Economize

There is something like a heavy slump in Anglo-American heiresses. The cause is not far to seek—taxation. It is falling hardest on the Americans who live in the British Isles. Britain takes nearly half their income, and America takes the best part of what is left. Some of the wealthy Americans who live in England, but derive their incomes from the United States, are having to economize. People who live on their incomes are, of course, very much harder hit than profiteers. When the condition of things becomes again what it was before the war, it will be seen that some of those in the forefront before August, 1914, will be relegated to a back seat, while quite a new order of heiresses with names unknown before the palmy days of munition contracts has been thrown up.

A Square Deal

One Thing Alone Will Bring Back Normal Conditions

One thing, and one thing alone, will bring back, not the old so-called normal conditions, but far better conditions, and that is negotiation and honest bargaining between labor and employer to the end of a square deal for everybody. Lord knows in this bountiful country of ours there is plenty for everybody, and there is contentment for everybody, if we all behave like civilized beings and get away from the notion that employees must trample employers or employers trample employees before the better days come in—Winnipeg Tribune.

Court-Martial for Fleet's Loss
London.—Admiral von Reuter, in command of the German fleet, scuttled and sunk in the Scapa Flow, will be court-martialed for having broken the armistice conditions, says the Daily Mail. The newspaper adds the details of the trial of the admiral will be arranged by the allied council in Paris.

Sank Bolshevik Battleship
London.—The Bolshevik battleship Andrei Pervozvanski is believed to have been sunk by a British torpedo near Kronstadt, according to a Finnish naval dispatch quoted in a Holingsfors cablegram to the Daily Mail. The telegram adds that the Bolshevik battleship Petropavlovsk has hoisted the white flag.

Early Marriages

Curious Facts in British Registrar-General's Report

Some curious facts are revealed in the British Registrar-General's report of births, marriages and deaths in 1917, says London Tit-Bits. Whereas most of the marriages used to take place in July, August and September, the favorite months now are October, November and December. Widows re-married in great numbers. Although young war widows affected the figures, it is clear that the war was not wholly responsible for the total began to increase in 1912. Widowers, too, show an increasing tendency to take second wives.

The youngest bachelor to marry was fifteen, and the youngest spinster fourteen. No fewer than 29 males married at the age of sixteen, and 389 at the age of seventeen, two of the latter marrying widows. Twenty-six spinsters married at the age of fifteen, one of them to a widower; 187 women were sixteen when they married, and of these were married at seventeen years, fifteen married widowers.

The earliest second marriage of males was at the age of nineteen, and three widows re-married at the age of eighteen. Of thirty-nine men married, when they were turned eighty, only one, aged eighty-two, had never tasted the joys of matrimonial bliss previously, the rest being widowers; but out of nine women marrying beyond that age, two were spinsters.

Wants to Be Czar

Living in a scantily-furnished room at Helsingfors—the gate of Russia—is the Grand Duke Cyril, waiting for the overthrow of Bolshevism, and hoping for a return to monarchy. In that event the Grand Duke would probably be appointed Czar, for he is next in line of succession to the throne. He narrowly escaped death at the hands of the Bolsheviks, and Grand Duke, who is a sailor by profession, married, in defiance of the Czar's orders, Princess Victoria of Edinburgh, a sister of the Queen of Romania, with the result that he was stripped of his orders and banished from Russia.

The Last of Defensive Armor

The heavy and clumsy defensive armor of the middle ages, without which no knight considered himself ready to go into battle, actually went out of use at the battle of Waterloo; then it was that the iron-shedded cuirassiers of Napoleon were so effectively defeated by the soldiers of Wellington.

A Safe Pill for Suffering Women

The inclusion of women in which permits of little healthful exercise, a fruitful cause of derangements of the system, and it is accounted for the pains and lassitude that so many of them experience. Farnell's Vegetable Pills will correct irregularities of the digestive organs and restore health and vigor. The pills indicate women can use them with safety, because their action while effective, is mild and soothing.

Fruit On Prairie

Prairie Provinces Will Soon Blossom Into Fruit Country

The Prairie Provinces produce a most inconsiderable yield of fruit, mostly small fruits, as shown in the Canada Year Book for 1918, issued by the Dominion Statistician. For the three provinces, as stated, the number of apple trees in bearing was 2,574; of apple trees not in bearing 10,618. Other orchard trees bearing numbered 7,210, and non-bearing 3,273. The orchard acreage is 674, and that of gardens 32,764. Of strawberries, the production was 20,355 quarts; of raspberries, 39,293 quarts; of currants 31,355 quarts; of gooseberries, 11,609 quarts; of other small fruits, 499 quarts; of apples, 1,899 bushels; and of other orchard fruits, 1,393 bushels.

Right To Seize

Whiskey Stills

May Be Extended to Officers Of Alberta Provincial Police

Edmonton, Alberta.—The right to seize illicit whiskey stills, which is at present vested only in officers of the federal inland revenue department, may shortly be extended to officers of the Alberta provincial police. The Attorney-General recently took this matter up with the federal authorities, urging such course, and received a careful hearing, which led him to believe that his suggestion would be acted upon. In view of the increasing number of would-be distillers in different parts of the province, the question of dealing with the situation has become a live one. As it stands now police officers are required to report all cases to the inland revenue department for their action.

Kaiser Too Late In

Starting The War

Bernhardi Apostle of Militarism Says That Was Wilhelm's Only Guilt

Berlin.—General Friedrich A. von Bernhardi, the military writer, under the title "Kaiser Wilhelm and Responsibility for the War," declares that the former emperor's only guilt was in not beginning the war early enough, when his opponents were not equipped, and takes the viewpoint in favor of preventive warfare. He says of the Kaiser: "To the last moment he believed Russia would surrender its initial intentions and England would not take part in the fighting. In this belief he negotiated to that end, and only with difficulty could he be induced to take up the gauntlet that had been thrown down to him."

General von Bernhardi admits, however, that certain personalities influenced the Kaiser's assumption of the gauntlet.

Weimar, Germany.—Hermann Müller, leader of the Majority Socialists, charged that a certain number of Berlin militarists were plotting to restore the Hohenzollerns to the throne of Germany. His accusation was made before the meeting of the National Assembly in session here. He said Germany regards the former Kaiser as an undesirable person and as the author of the country's many misfortunes. "Wilhelm should be placed under observation," he concluded.

Refused to Obey Orders and Were Promptly Arrested

London.—The mutinous conduct of troops at Sutton Camp, Surrey, which has been growing for the past ten days, culminated in the formation of a committee by the men and their refusal to salute or to obey orders.

Two battalions of troops were sent to the camp in light fighting trim and with a machine gun.

The troops arrested 400 men, among them ring-leaders, and dispatched 1,800 other men to camps at Dover and Canterbury. The main grievance of the men was that they were being ordered to France.

Operation Under Difficulties

On the American armored cruiser South Dakota received a young soldier was found to be suffering from acute appendicitis and in such a condition that immediate operation was imperative. The ship was fighting in the teeth of a gale; the bridge had been smashed; several men injured, and others flung out of their bunks through the force of the storm. In spite of this, however, the ship's surgeon, aided by an aviator surgeon, decided to make an attempt to operate. The machinery was stopped, and the two surgeons were lashed to the operating table. At the end of 45 minutes they had completed the operation. The patient recovered rapidly, and by the time the ship reached its destination was practically himself again.—Baltimore Sun.

Not Transmittable

For the umpteenth time he had declared his undying love, and the damsel looked at him meditatively. She liked him—ninety-eight per cent. of him. It was the two per cent that she abided.

"Be mine!" he cried. "I would die for you!"

"Here, and now," she demanded eagerly.

"Anywhere!" was his heart-heaved response.

Lighly she tripped upstairs, to return with a bottle of Dinkley's diamond-dye (black).

"It was your ginger hair, darling, that I couldn't stand. I hated hair! Now dye for me, and I am yours!"

And he did, then and there, and they were married and lived happily ever after—that is, he, for, twelve calendar months. Then they lived unhappily for ever, ever after. For the thach on the heads of the twins was flaming red.

Canada Repatriation

A paragraph appearing in Repatriation, a monthly bulletin published in the interests of returned men in Australia, quotes the speech delivered in Sydney by Premier Holman, of New South Wales, in which he stated that that state had settled 1,100 men on the land. The premier claimed that this was a much larger number than had been settled in any of the other states.

New South Wales sent to the battlefields of Europe thirty-nine per cent. of the total of the Australian Expeditionary Force. If the proportion of ex-servicemen settled on the land in the other states was equal to that of New South Wales the figures would be for the whole of Australia 2,800 men benefited by the Land Settlement Act up to the date of the premier's speech.

Up to the 17th of May, the Soldier Settlement Board of Canada had approved of 7,000 applications for the benefits of the Soldier Settlement Act and a great many more applications were before the qualification committees in the various provinces. These figures which will be further augmented by the returns of the last two weeks of May and for June show that Canada is well in advance of the other commonwealth in providing suitable farms for her war heroes.

What Fakers Gather In

In the United States no less than $30,000,000 are annually gathered in by financial fakers who unload worthless stocks, real estate and other valueless things upon the public. Capitalized at 5 per cent, this represents $60,000,000, or is equal to nearly two-thirds of the total amount loaned by the United States to allied governments.

There is no means of ascertaining how much is lost in Canada in this way. It is reasonable, however, to assume that the per capita loss, $8, is the same in this country, which would mean that in an average year about $23,000,000 are raked in by fakers. When one recalls the huge sums lost in fake mining, oil and "wildcat" real estate ventures, one cannot but conclude that the estimate is not far astray.

Will the fakers get your money or will you invest it in something safe that will pay well? Put it into war savings stamps and you will obtain a small government bond that is absolutely safe and yields 4½ per cent compounded half yearly.—E.S.

Unmitigated Gall

For unmitigated gall and sheer audacity we desire to hand the palm to the advertising agency of a Montreal firm of shoe manufacturers who have in a letter appealed to the press for free publicity to promote the world for another increase in the price of boots and shoes as they may increase still further their enormous dividends. They claim that there is a scarcity in hides and leather in America, while the New York Times of recent date stated there was an abundance of hides and leather in the country. The article also declares that shoes sold as high as $40 a pair in Belgium, and in conversation with a recently returned soldier from Brussels we are informed that he purchased a pair of shoes from a shoe merchant there for thirty-four francs.

In the meantime the manufacturers will put up the price of their products, and the public be damned.

Fourteen Points in Shooting a Man

In Texas they shoot you, then ask your name.

In New York they shoot you, then take home their wife, with whom you had been dining.

In Chicago they shoot you to reveal the inequity of the poll tax force.

In Arizona they shoot you to test their new "shooting iron."

In Kansas City they hold you up, take your money, and then shoot you so you won't talk.

In Chateau-Thierry they shoot you then cry "Kamerad."

In Russia they shoot you to convert you to bolshevism.

In Germany they shoot each other through force of habit.

In Mexico they shoot you to blame it on Villa.

In Ireland they shoot you to demonstrate the value of home rule.

In California they shoot you, then throw you off a cliff—the ocean; you are picked up by a submarine, shot through the tube in an airplane, and must be home in twenty minutes to change your clothes for another scene in the movies.

In South America, in the revolutions they shoot you if you are a general, if a private, they don't bother, as there are so few of them.

In Amerongen they let you saw wood a while before they shoot you.

In the United States, in general, they don't shoot you at all; they merely tax you to death.—Lile.

To The Ratepayers Town of Blairmore

Blairmore, Alta., June 28, 1919.

Ladies and Gentlemen:—Although being under the absolute necessity of imposing a mill rate of 80 in the dollar on this year's assessment, some explanation is due to you for the increase.

When the present council took office there was owing to the Union Bank $9,725.00 and debenture coupon arrears amounted to $7,192.10, in addition to accrued interest on debentures of $2,248.44 and further, we have had to pay some $2,000 for accounts in connection with last year's influenza epidemic.

The bank is pressing for a reduction of the overdraft, and the debenture coupons in arrears have to be paid forthwith. Failure to do so means that action will be taken by the holders, involving the town in heavy costs, and the likelihood of an official receiver being put in charge, because, as has been pointed out by the Provincial Department of Municipal Affairs, we have reached the end of our tether and these liabilities must be met.

After paring down the estimated expenditure to the lowest possible point the amount required is $24,958.00 and our revenue from electric light, waterworks and licenses is calculated to produce $13,800.00, thus leaving $11,158.00 to be obtained from taxation.

The total assessment value for the year is $272,000.00. A 40 mill rate in 1918 showed a revenue of $10,965.00, but only $7,198.00 was received, leaving arrears of $3,767.00. Consequently it appears that our live assessment is but two-thirds of the whole.

A 80 mill rate on the present year would show as receivable $16,262.00, but it is only safe to assume that our recent results we cannot depend on getting more than $10,968.00 of this within the necessary time. The arrears of taxes 1917 and prior, amount to the huge sum of $25,151.28, to which must be added the unpaid 1918 taxes.

This condition of affairs will not be allowed to continue any longer. We have placed in the hands of our town solicitor every unpaid tax account with positive instructions to take any and every proceeding necessary to enforce payment at the earliest possible moment, irrespective of position or party. This action has been unavoidably delayed awaiting a copy of the new act applicable to collection of arrears of taxation, but which we now have.

It is intolerable that such conditions should have been permitted or allowed to continue year after year, harassing small property owners and making them carry the burdens of land speculators equally able to pay.

I would point out to all users of electric light and water that they can materially help the town in its present critical financial condition by paying their bills each month when the collector calls, there being quite a large amount overdue on these utilities, which is handicapping the town who have to pay eight per cent. interest and compound interest for accommodation money. Let us all pull together and surround the present, and believe, merely temporary embarrassment, into which the town's affairs have been allowed to drift and next year the council will have a totally different picture to present, for each and all are determined to distribute the burden equally and get maximum results at minimum costs. If it is any consolation to our heavily burdened citizens I may add that we have a neighboring partner in similar distress, with a mill rate, including schools, of 75.

Your obedient servant,

JAMES G. EWAN, Mayor,

and chairman of Finance Committee.

Municipal District
Voters' List

Prior to the year 1917 the right to vote at an election for councillors for a municipal district was limited to the parties who were assessed for land. In the year 1917, however, the right to vote for councillors was extended to include the wives, husbands, sons and daughters of the persons assessed, provided such wives, husbands, sons and daughters were twenty-one years of age and resident within the boundaries of the municipality. It was felt that the relatives of the owners or occupants of land were by their industry assisting both directly and indirectly in the progress and work of the municipality and therefore it seemed only fair that they should have a right to say who they wished to carry on the business of the municipality.

The amendment to the act, however, which made provision for these parties voting, placed upon the secretary-treasurer the burden of finding out who the parties were that were entitled to vote because of their relation to persons who were assessed, and of entering their names on the voters' list. It was found that it was impossible for a secretary-treasurer, without a great amount of labor, to make a list of these people. For example, sons and daughters of persons assessed are entitled to have their names placed on the voters' list when they become twenty-one years of age, and when the secretary-treasurer was required to make up the list it was absolutely impossible for him to do so properly without making a canvass of the entire district each year, inquiring as to when these parties became of age, and also as to whether or not they were resident in the municipality. This being the case, it was felt to be unfair that such a burden should be placed on that official, therefore, at the last session of the legislature, the Hon. A. G. MacKay, Minister of Municipal Affairs, introduced an amendment which has now become law, requiring all persons who were entitled to vote at an election for councillors, be it male or female, wives, husbands, sons or daughters of persons assessed, to register their names with the secretary-treasurer.

All parties entitled to vote because of their relationship to a person assessed must make application to have their names placed on the voters' list, otherwise they will not be able to vote at an election for councillors. Such application must be made to the secretary-treasurer of the district sometime between November 1st and December 31st, both inclusive, of each year, during the usual office hours. Application may be made personally by the person claiming the right to vote, or it may be made through the party on account of whose assessment an applicant claims the right to vote. All persons who are of the opinion they have the right to vote under this provision should therefore be careful to make application to have their names placed on the voters' list in due time, so that they may be able to cast their ballots at the next election for municipal district councillors.

Another amendment to the provisions of the Municipal District Act in connection with the voters' list should also be noted. That is an amendment to Section 88 of the Municipal District Act, which requires a copy of the voters' list to be posted up at some central place in each polling division in the municipal district. As the act formerly stood it only required that there should be a copy of the voters' list posted in the secretary-treasurer's office. This was inconvenient, because it frequently meant a special trip of quite a few miles, if an elector wished to find out whether or not his name was on the voters' list.

Unless the business of a municipality is controlled by an active and intelligent public opinion there cannot be the results there should be from our municipal organizations. With the widening of the franchise and the making of additional provision whereby parties entitled to vote may make sure their names are on the voters' list, there will be an incentive to greater interest being taken in municipal matters, so one of the weak spots in rural municipal organization in the past has been the lack of interest on the part of the majority of the electors as to who should be elected councillors.

Blairmore is not the driest town in Alberta by any means. Even the stock ranchers of Southern Alberta realize this fact and are sending their cattle up this way to save them. It's a well known fact that the rest of Alberta voted for prohibition.

The Last Fatigue

[F. T. Halstead]

The mist was slowly lifting from the surface of the Old Fraser as my train pulled into New Westminster. One by one my civilian passengers departed, leaving me perhaps an object of curiosity to a few onlookers who had gathered round the B. C. Electric depot. A car bound for the fair grounds rambled leisurely along, and I, a returned man, just one of many thousands, boarded the car with my goods and chattels, anticipating for the first time the daily routine of my new home. I did not have long to wait for the realization of the said anticipation. My army inexperience of the local camp rules and regulations were treated with kindness and courtesy. An iron bedstead, together with a soft thick mattress and five real Canadian blankets, came to my misty eyes almost like a present from the "Gods."

The initial procedure of this discharge depot was rapidly gone through, and day after day became a round of sunbathing, peace and plenty, and the entrancing mountain scenery. One was gradually learning to become acquainted with a life of ease, and a feeling of kindly regard to all men became a part of one's once war-like nature. One could even throw off a war's thought to the C.F.E. But, alas, a fatal day arrived, when a voice louder than thunder roared out my name. I could tell by the accent of that voice that trouble was in store for me.

I immediately became a creature of surprise and fear. Visions of cold, miserable guards, irascible judges, distant, floating unheeded and unchecked across my mental vision. "Q." said the awful one, "you are to report to the mess sergeant at once." I halted, right-about turned, and put on the customary dejected look of the soldier-soldier. I was, and then proceeded to march mockingly behind a squad of unfortunate. After reaching the dining room, we listened to an inspired-Scottishman for ten minutes, the theme embracing such wide subjects as economy in soap, penalties for "no turning up," the whereabouts of hot water, etc.

After the lecturer had finished, an old timer put a few lucky ones wise to the soft jobs, also informing them the job would not last long.

My departed equality began to return, only it came in very small quantities. A small group, suitable for a better mess room, announced to the "hungry ones" that dinner was about to be served, and, fastidious, also, the mentioned armed themselves with necessary tools, and waited patiently until their turn arrived to receive of the "cook's pleasure." For the information of the reader, the food in advanced battle is provided so that each man can wash his plate; cup, knife, fork and spoon. When the filling and partial filling of the "human cavities" had abated, and the grinders ground no more, and the molars had ceased, we, the mess orderlies with a martyr-like air, began what seemed an endless job of wiping plates and cups. The cloth or linen provided was the regulation size, shape and color, especially the color, after we had finished wiping water on the cloth, and the wadded cloth on the plate, we began to rather up the fragments of food, (not plates), left on the tables. It is as well to draw a veil over the fragments, yet they were so numerous and tasty that one enterprising man, of economic birth, spent his time gathering choice morsels of butter, just to prepare a new patent food for hogs. He had a clear field, competition being all. After the floor had been swept with a broom, the end came in sight. Silently and swiftly we slipped away unobserved, leaving the "faithful two" to pick up the sweepings. Thus ended the "Last Fatigue."

Profiteering In Canada

While not proposing in this article to even attempt to define the cause or contributing agencies to the excessive profiteering which has been and is still rampant in Canada, and also while not attempting to assume responsibility for suggesting the nature of the remedy that should be applied, it can be said without any hesitation or qualification whatever that the Government at Ottawa must act, act quickly, act even drastically, to put a stop to the extortionate profiteering in the necessities of life which has become not only a national scandal, but is so outraging the feelings of the people that a situation is developing which constitutes a serious menace to the future stability of the Dominion.

The cost of living has now reached a height where even men of moderate incomes are beginning to worry how to make ends meet, while the man on small salary and the workman depending on his daily or weekly wage is becoming almost desperate in his struggle to find, clothe and keep a roof over the heads of himself, wife and children.

There can be no question, of course, that it was not possible for the civilized nations of the world to turn their activities and energies for a year and a half years, from the work of peaceful production and trade, into the terrible business of war and wholesale destruction of life and property without such loss in production, and destruction of existing wealth and property, having the effect of increasing the cost of all articles that were made and produced. Under the circumstances, an increase was natural and inevitable, and, if there were no other artificial contributing causes, the people would grin and bear it as one of the prices of victory and the securing of the future liberty and peace of the world.

Unfortunately, however, selfish interests, lacking the first elements of patriotism in their make-up, took advantage of the world upheaval and the necessities of their country and all mankind engaged in a life and death struggle for their very independence and existence, to control and manipulate the life necessities of the masses of the people in such a manner as to pile up enormous profits and wealth for themselves. These men and corporations took full advantage of the abnormal conditions existing to accumulate abnormal profits for themselves, utterly callous to the effect on their fellow citizens and country.

These soulless individuals and corporations did this at a time when all the energies and thought of the Government were centered on the tremendous task thrust upon it of prosecuting the war to a victorious end, and when it was, therefore, no easy matter to keep a close check upon their operations.

The war is now over and won, ending in a triumphant victory for democracy, civilization and human rights and liberty. It is, therefore, now the first and chief business and duty of the Government of Canada to grapple with this problem, put a stop to all excessive profiteering, and bring down the cost of living in this country. It can be done. It must be done. If it is not, the outlook for Canada is far from bright.

A year or so ago the profiteering of the pork barons and meat packers was disclosed to the public gaze and shocked the moral conscience of the whole country. Within recent weeks the Parliamentary committee at Ottawa bringing into the high cost of living has dragged into the open light of day the extortionate profiteering in which many of the big corporations of Canada have been engaged, and which has enabled them to pile up profits ranging all the way from 50 to 300 per cent. These profits have been made by the meat packers, the flour milling companies, the manufacturers of clothing—in a word, the dealers in those articles which all the people must buy in order to live.

This selfish and extortionate accumulation of great wealth by the few at the expense of the many is one of the chief reasons for the high cost of living today which is driving men and women to desperation, and creating such a feeling of unrest and discontent that they are all too ready to act upon the advice and suggestions of extreme Socialists and agitators of all kinds, many even being willing to go to the length of revolution against all constituted authority.

It is not sufficient that Parliament should succeed in definitely exposing these evils, and thus confirm what the people have long suspected. There must be action by the Government to end these evils. Unless such action follows swiftly upon these disclosures more harm than good will have been done, because the feelings of unrest are being intensified by the facts made known. The Government must act, and act quickly.

Good news spreads rapidly and drug stores are kept busy dispensing freezine, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati chemist, sure to bring to any corn so it lifts-out with the fingers.

You apply just a few drops on the tender aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shrivelled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sure and substantial which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

Huns Have Not Changed

Safety Can Be Found Only in the Military Partnership of the Victor

Paris.—The Paris newspapers, in commenting upon the decision of the German national assembly to sign the treaty, lay stress on the efforts of Germany to escape her responsibilities and see in it proof that the German mental attitude has not changed. The Germans, it is claimed, generally will observe the clauses of the treaty only with a knife at their throats, and point to the deliberate destruction of the German ships at Scapa Flow as a symbol and a warning.

Belief is expressed by the Echo de Paris that the resistance of the Germans, manifested not only at Scapa Flow, but at all points in Europe where they are bent on down flight, will show the allies that safety can be found only in the military partnership of the victors.

Canadian Wheat Condition Good

Ottawa.—About the condition of the Bureau of Statistics places the total area sown to wheat in Canada this season at 16,958,500 acres, compared with 17,353,902 acres in 1918. The area sown to spring wheat is 16,160,750 acres or 776,537 acres less than the area of oats is estimated at 14,564,000 acres, or 136,000 acres less than in 1918.

The average condition as of May 31 follows: Spring wheat 96, compared with 96 in 1918; fall wheat 101, compared with 73; oats 98, compared with 96; oats 95, compared with 100; barley 95, compared with 98; rye 101, compared with 94.

Clemenceau's Work Done

Paris.—Premier Clemenceau has expressed his intention to resign from office as soon as the treaty is promulgated, feeling that he has accomplished the task for which he assumed the premiership, says Marie Hottin in the Echo de Paris. It is expected that parliament will ratify the treaty late in July.

American War Expenditure

Washington.—War expenditure of the war department between April 6, 1917, and June 1, 1919, totalled $1,544,610,000. Secretary Baker informed the special house committee at the beginning of its probe of the department. Of this sum $12,822,100,000 was spent in the United States.

It is no more human to err than it is to be about it.

How Marshal Foch (Rebuked) Germans

Gen. Von Winterfeldt, When Asking for Armistice, Wore French Cross of Legion of Honor

The tactlessness, lack of good taste, and utter mental obtuseness of the average Prussian is well illustrated by a breach of the proprieties committed last fall when Germany made her appeal for an armistice, the offender being no less a personage than Gen. Hans Von Winterfeldt, chief military plenipotentiary of the mission sent by Germany to call on Marshal Foch to arrange for terms.

It appears that General Von Winterfeldt, who should have been well informed on points of military courtesy, since he was reared at the court of Berlin and later spent many years in Paris as military attache, some months before the outbreak of the war was seriously injured in an automobile accident while attending manoeuvres of the French army in the south of France. He was treated with the utmost solicitude by the most eminent French surgeons. During his illness President Poincaré called on him and decorated him with the Cross of Officer of the Legion of Honor.

When the war broke out Von Winterfeldt took charge of the espionage service of the German Government at San Sebastian in Spain, doing no end of harm to the people who had treated him with such consideration.

How the Prussian general aroused the ire of the French marshal during the armistice negotiations is thus related by a writer in the New York Evening Sun:

Marshal Foch received the German delegate in the railroad car which he made his home, and which was then switched on a siding in the forest of Compiegne. When the German emissaries were ushered into his presence and Von Winterfeldt saluted, the ordinarily impassive marshal's eyes, for once in the war, went up. No wonder, for the German general had had the incredible impudence to do so for the occasion the Cross of Officer of the Legion of Honor, bestowed upon him by President Poincaré before the war, in total disregard of the fact that all French distinctions bestowed upon Germans had been cancelled by the war, in the same way that French naval and military men and citizens had "escaped" every mark of honor and decoration that they had received.

Before returning the salute Marshal Foch, fixing his eye on the Legion's cross and red ribbon on the general's breast, exclaimed in the most sharp and cutting tones: "Mon sieur! I authorize you to remove that cross at once from your breast!"

Gen. Von Winterfeldt, thoroughly disconcerted, removed it, and, instead of laying it down on the table, placed it rather sheepishly and awkwardly in his pocket. It was only then that Marshal Foch acknowledged the salute and consented to proceed to business.

Miller's Worm Powders prove their value. They do not cause any violent disturbances in the stomach, any pain or griping, but do their work quietly and painlessly, so that the destruction of the worms is imperceptible. Yet they are thoroughly and from the first dose there is improvement in the condition of the sufferer and the cessation of manifestations of internal trouble.

The Bolshevik Failure

Bolshevik Utopia Demonstrated to Be a Right to Die by Wholesale

Their military reverses are due to the fact that there is rottenness at the core of the Bolshevik structure. The people are losing confidence in it because it has failed to redeem its pledges. In place of happiness it has given misery; in place of freedom, tyranny; in place of a new life, a new form of national death. The poor man's Bolshevik Utopia of rights has been demonstrated to be a right to die by wholesale of the plague; his liberty, the liberty to be idle and starve. In Odessa the workmen have grown suspicious of these "beneficent" ideas. They have no objection to any castigation of the bourgeoisie, but will not permit such wholesale nationalization of factories as has ruined the workers of Moscow and Petrograd, and they insist on the retention of the managers and private ownership.—Baltimore Sun.

Royal Road to Learning

The local soviet in the town of Kronach, Russia, discovered that everyone else has failed to find him, a royal road to learning. And like every really great discovery, it is simplicity itself. Placard the principal thoroughfare of your town with "portraits and brief news items," and what have you? Why, a "street" where every man, woman and child is learning. "In this way," declares the "Izvestia," "any citizen, instead of spending years at a bourgeois university, can pick up a general knowledge of the principal subjects as he walks along."

FATEFUL YEARS FOR ALL WOMEN

How Best to Overcome the Troubles That Afflict Women Only

The most fateful years in a woman's life are those between forty-five and fifty. Many women enter this period of life with a contented and healthy outlook, but through overwork, worry or a neglected condition of the blood, and so they suffer, because the nervous system of health at this time can be relieved by home treatment.

Among the commonest symptoms are headaches and pains in the back and sides, feverishness, palpitation, dizziness and depression. Women stand in need of rich, red blood all their life, but never more so than in middle years, when the nerves are also weak and over-worked. Now every woman can prove the prompt help afforded to her health by restoring her blood supply. It is a test that any ailing woman can make by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for these pills make rich, red blood, which in turn helps the appetite, strengthens the nerves and restores robust health. Thousands of women have found in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the relief which new health and a brighter outlook of life were gained. In proof of this is the voluntary testimony of Mrs. H. S. Peterson, Milford, Ont., who says: "I have suffered greatly from those troubles that afflict women, in such cases not only do all that is claimed for them, but more. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done so much for me that I urge every weak woman to try them, and they will soon realize the great difference in their health they make."

If you suffer from any of the ills mentioned above, and if you are not a doctor, you should avail yourself at once of the health help of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can order them from any dealer in medicine or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Locating Prisoners of War

Sixty thousand More French Prisoners Located in Germany

Paris.—Mentioned in the number of French prisoners held in Germany were found to be incorrect, Leon Abram, under-secretary in the ministry of war, announced in the chamber of deputies. More than 60,000 French prisoners in excess of the German figures were found in Germany. The number of French soldiers missing in action has reached 314,000, the under-secretary said.

The bodies of the majority of the missing, he added, are still recoverable. A forest fire is also reported in the valuable timber in the Porcupine Hills.

Film Company To Tour Canadian Rockies

Filming about Twenty-Five Hundred Feet of Our Canadian Rockies

Word has been received in Winnipeg that the Fred Stone Film Company of Los Angeles, Cal., a party of fifteen people, are in Vancouver en route to Lake Louise, Banff and other Canadian Rocky resorts, for the purpose of filming western story which will include about twenty-five hundred feet of our Canadian Rockies.

This story will be an all-Canadian production, and will be shown when released, throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.

This is the first time a film company has ever attempted to stage a film at any of our beautiful resorts in the Rockies, and will be looked forward to with great interest by those who have seen and visited these resorts, and with wonder by those who have yet to see such magnificent scenery as our Canadian Rockies afford, surpassed nowhere in the world.

Nights of Agony come in the train of asthma. The victim cannot lie down and sleep is driven from his brain. What grateful relief is the immediate effect of Dr. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy. It banishes the frightful conditions, clears the passages, and enables the afflicted one to again sleep as soundly and restfully as a child. Insist on the genuine at your nearby drugist.

Bind Canadian Soldiers

In the report of the Overseas Minister of Militia for 1918, which has just been published, it is stated that 66 Canadian soldiers who had lost their eyesight while on active service had attended the School for the Blind Soldiers, of whom about 46 are still receiving instruction at that institution.

The System is Poisoned

By Failure of the Liver and Kidneys to Purify the Blood

Relief Obtained by Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Two much eating of heavy, highly seasoned foods and too little outdoor exercise are the most frequent causes of kidney trouble. The result is torpid and inactive, the bowels are constipated, the kidneys are overworked in an effort to get rid of the accumulating poisons and breakdown. Headache, backache, aching limbs sound a warning note, and when this is not heeded the natural development is rheumatism, jaundice, and painful and fatal forms of kidney disease.

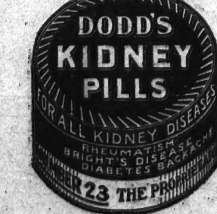

To have overcome this condition Dr. Chase worked out in his private practice a prescription which has come to be known as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This combination action on these filtering organs. A treatment has been proven so successful in awakening the action of the kidneys, liver and bowels. The first step is to get rid of the system of all impurities. For this reason Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a world-wide reputation as the most thorough cure for constipation, indigestion, chronic indigestion and constipation.

Mrs. J. Gordon, Warrington, Ont., writes: "A few years ago I suffered from kidney and liver trouble, and was advised to take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I had heard of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills from a friend, and I commenced taking them. I had only one glass of beer, and the trouble was all over."

Mrs. M. Nichols, 184 Milford Street, Boston, Mass., writes: "Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are excellent. I have been suffering for years with kidney trouble and backache, but after I had taken five boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I was cured. I have never felt so well, and I can now do all my work as usual. I have never felt so well, and I can now do all my work as usual. I have never felt so well, and I can now do all my work as usual."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills only cost 25 cents a box, all dealers have them. Write to Dr. Chase, Limited, Toronto. Substitution will only disappoint. Insist on getting the genuine.

The highest point of meanness was reached by a young farmer who recently drove his lady love into town on a day of a big celebration. A short distance from where they were sitting in the buggy there was a peanut stand. The young lady exclaimed: "Haven't those peanuts a delicious smell?" "Yes, they have," he replied, "and I will drive you closer, so that you can get a better smell!"

Alleging that three times within the last three weeks—at Seattle, at the international boundary and in Vancouver—her husband, "Tommy Burns," heavyweight pugilist, has attempted to have her arrested and detained as a dangerous lunatic, Mrs. Julie Verena Bruso has filed a long affidavit reciting her matrimonial wrongs in an effort to have the supreme court award her the custody of their four young daughters.

A raid was made on a Chinese laundry at Banff last week and evidence of the presence of opium was found. One Lung and Two Lung were found guilty of having respectively opium and poppy extract in their possession and were also respectively mulcted to the tune of $50 and $25 and costs, while Three Lung and Four Lung and No Lung and the devil knows how many other Lungs, against whom charges were preferred, were dismissed. They say that the atmosphere of the court was such that the judge and lawyers and police were obliged to borrow gas masks from some of the returned veterans, and the judge's oration through the mask sounded like a Welsh interpretation of the Indian national anthem.

Delegates who represent the Vancouver branch of the Great War Veterans' Association at the big Dominion convention at Vancouver this week brought before the conference the granting of six months' pay to all returned soldiers who had served overseas during the war, this pay to be computed in all cases at the rate paid to officers holding the rank of captain in the Canadian forces. The above scheme is to take the place of the proposed $2,000 gratuity plan.

Since this foolish sympathetic strike started every small town in Manitoba had thousands of crates of good eggs that spoiled because they couldn't be sent to cold storage plants in Winnipeg. Here in Alberta there was considerable cream spoiled as well as eggs as a result of the expressmen going on strike. The strike as a means of bringing down the high cost of living is a tragic joke and the strikers, when in want next winter need not look for much sympathy from the general public.—High River Times.

We do not think much of the informant, and much less of the correspondent who accepted the matter regarding Blairmore which appeared in last Saturday's Calgary Herald. Volumes of boosting material can be supplied in the interests of Blairmore and the Crow's Nest Pass which would be of very great interest to the outside world, and there is not even a need for exaggeration. There are individuals in our midst who would, rather become a modern kaiser than be a booster, and to such we would say that if you cannot say a good word for heaven's sake keep mum!

For a legislative innovation P. E. I. takes the cake. The latest is in line with their legislation regarding automobiles during the first few years, and it is practically certain on other part of Canada will care to duplicate. A new plan of estimates for public expenditure was adopted at the last session of the legislature and is now in operation, providing that instead of appropriations for definite amounts to this or that department, blank checks are given for the yearly outlays, and each department is to fill them in for "a sum sufficient" for its requirements. The scheme is delightfully utopian but surely it paves the way for all kinds of trouble.—Ex.

Pincher Creek became almost fatherless last week, when the mayor and several councillors resigned after a head-on collision with the provincial health inspector. On the charge of Inspector Alexander, the town council of Pincher Creek was fined $500 for not having lived up to the requirements of the Public Health Act. Reasons given for the resignation of Mayor Hyde and members J. J. Gillespie, J. J. Cameron, H. Bosseberry, Woods and Lees, is that "having been judged incompetent, they would incur no further responsibility."

The local G.W.V.A. has acquired a brick building on the Frank-Blairmore intertown boundary line and are fitting it up as a club room and headquarters for the Pass veterans. The grounds are being laid out similar to the Galt Gardens at Lethbridge, over which they have one advantage, that you can use your fishing rod from the back door or window, to great advantage in one of the finest fishing streams in the Crow's Nest Pass. In describing the coast line Fitzsimmons says it resembles very much the south-east coast of Newfoundland or the bluffs around Turnavik, Labrador, only there are not so many bluffs entertained. The headquarters are to be in charge of a caretaker and the club rooms will extend a welcome to the veteran, whithersoever he cometh.

In the mine rescue competition at Calgary on Tuesday the Blairmore team secured third place, bringing home beautifully engraved gold and silk fobs.
